

Toyota Honours Exide with Zero PPM Award for zero defective parts per million

T TOYOTA KIRLOSKAR MOTOR has awarded Exide the coveted Zero PPM

Award for 2003. This certifies that Exide products supplied to Toyota during the year had zero defective parts per million. Exide also won the quality award for the second consecutive year, and the 'Green' award for achieving ISO 14001 certification in 2003. No wonder India moves
